I have returned to my hometown of Wilson Creek for the first time in 10 years.

So many things have changed around here. When I left Wilson Creek, there was a small pond in the town. They have filled in this pond and have built a large department store there.

There is a baseball stadium in town, but it also looks very different. They have now added new seats. Probably a few thousand people can sit there.

I saw the biggest changes in the town center. People can only walk in the streets now and you can't drive there anymore.

The street near my house looks just the same but now it has a public library. There was a great park there but they have cut down all the trees. I feel a little sad. The library now has a green area in front of it but it is different from the great park.

In addition, a lot of new restaurants opened in Wilson Creek. A Chinese and an Italian restaurant have opened in the town center and a German restaurant has opened near my home. I will go there tonight!

M: Hi Paul. Listen, it's Jack's birthday next week. Let's do something for him this weekend.

P: That sounds great. What shall we do?

M: Well ... I haven't decided yet ... do you have any ideas?

P: How about going to the movie theater?

M: Yeah. Are there any good films?

P: Mmm ... How about a comedy? I recommend Lucky Break.

M: Oh no, I saw it with Jack last week.

P: Erm ... How about going ice skating?

M: No ... Jack doesn't like ice skating.

P: Well ... what does he like?

M: Ah! He likes singing ... What about going to karaoke?

P: That's a great idea. When shall we go?

M: How about Saturday afternoon? I think Jack is free.

P: All right.

M: Let's meet at the Komichi Karaoke Box at 3:00.

P: I don't know where that is.

M: Oh, you don't know the place? Then, why don't we meet 10 minutes before three at the shopping center near the station? Then we can all walk to the place. It takes only 5 minutes.

P: OK, great!

Question

No1. What did they decide to do this weekend?

No2. What time are they going to meet this weekend?
